DINE, WINE AND UNWIND

The Ford grounds open two hours before evening performances to give patrons a chance to relax and eat. Dine in the beautiful terraced entryway or amphitheatre. Bring your own food and beverage (alcohol is allowed), order box dinners in advance from the Ford's caterers or purchase from the broad menu at on-site concessions. Click on "Dine" on the Ford web site home page for more details.

ABOUT THE FORD THEATRES

The John Anson Ford Theatres, nestled in the Hollywood Hills, are operated by the Los Angeles County Arts Commission and located in a County Regional Park.

FORD AMPHITHEATRE

The 1241-seat outdoor amphitheatre hosts music, dance, theatre and film events from June through October. Evenings under the stars can start with a party in the terraced entryway affording sweeping views of the Hollywood Hills.

[INSIDE] THE FORD

The 87-seat, state-of-the-art indoor venue is an intimate space that enhances the theatre experience. The November through May [Inside] season features world or Los Angeles premiere productions by L.A. County-based theatre companies.
